

So much more than her dementia...

Jenny, 76

- Wife, mother and grandmother
- Loves gardening
- Played the trumpet
- Lived in South America
- Travelled the world
- Enjoys Scrabble

...diagnosed with dementia in 2016

Befriending is all about doing something you enjoy with a person in the early stages of dementia who enjoys doing the same sort of things – you could find yourself spending a few hours a fortnight with someone like Jenny – making a real difference.

We are currently recruiting VOLUNTEER BEFRIENDERS in your area, so contact us today to find out how you can make the most amazing difference to somebody living with dementia.
